

Please leave KLOVE radio alone. They are critical to the listeners within the Colorado community. If KLOVE were gone our local community and the National community would suffer so greatly. It truly makes a daily positive impact and I can't imagine the loss if it were gone. KLOVE's entire purpose and mission is betterment of the entire listener base. They have the public interest as their first and foremost concern.